In Texas, each school district must implement a program under which high school students can earn the equivalent of at least 12 semester credit hours of college credit. This can be achieved through various programs, including dual credit, Advanced Placement®, International Baccalaureate, articulated credit, and advanced technical credit courses.

Brookeland ISD partners with Angelina Junior College to fulfill this requirement.

Brookeland ISD offers the following dual credit classes:

U.S. History: HIST 1301 and HIST 1302

Speech: SPCH 1315

Psychology: PSYCH 2301

English 4: ENG 1301 and ENG 1302

College Algebra: MATH 1314

Elementary Statistics: MATH 1342

Federal Government: GOVT 2305
